

Just because the Broadcasters are too stupid or lazy or just plain greedy to give the public what they want, good programing with limited to no commercials why should they be abled to interfere with my choice of subscribing to XM radio, and what I here on that.